

This 48yo man presents with dizziness and palpitations. The patient's vitals are:

BP 100/60

RR 18

GCS 15

1. What is the diagnosis? (1mark)

2. List 3 features on this ECG which supports your diagnosis (3marks)

3. The patient's BP drops to 70/40 and he becomes confused. Describe your 2 most important management priorities at this time (4marks)

4. Is implantable defibrillator an option in this patient? Justify your answer (2 marks)